KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

TO IGNORE STATE LIST.

Maysville, Ky., September 7.—The Maysville board of education voted to decide what school books shall be used in the schools here, and will not accept the list as made out by the state board.

RURAL DELIVERY IN BALLARD.

Washington, September 7.—Frank R. Wyatt was today appointed regular and Lawrence F. Davis substitute rural free delivery carriers at Kevil. Rural free delivery service is ordered established October 1 at Sebree, Webster county, with one carrier. The route embraces an area of seventeen square miles; population to be served 687.

AN UNPARALLELED RECORD.

Carrollton, Ky., September 7.—Mrs. T. W. Disken, of this city, belongs to a family that in one respect probably has no parallel in the United States. Her great-grandfather, Greenberry Tingle's oldest child, William Tingle, and his oldest great-grandchild, Mrs. T. W. Disken (nee Myrtle Tingle), were born on the same day of the same month just twenty-one years apart, and the great-grandfather lived to see his oldest grandchild twenty-one years of age.

"WALKED IN HIS SLEEP."

Lancaster, Ky., September 7.—Arthur Thompson, twenty-seven, a well known young farmer, of Betton, this county, while dreaming that the house was on fire, ran to a window and jumped out, falling a distance of sixteen feet, striking a pile of rock where a cistern had just been dug, breaking his right arm, fracturing his left knee, and probably dangerously injuring himself internally. He, as well as two brothers, is afflicted with somnambulism, and it is said they have been frequently caught roaming over the farm in their sleep.

Shot Through Mistake.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 7.—George Lawrence, an employee of the Tennessee Central railroad, was shot and probably fatally wounded by D. E. Ramsey, a section foreman of the road, as the result of mistaken identity. Ramsey lives about six miles south of this city, and had been greatly annoyed recently by prowlers about his place. Lawrence visited his former home, near Ramsey's place, and on his return passed through the premises. Ramsey, hearing a noise, secured his pistol and, seeing Lawrence climbing the fence, hailed him and, receiving no reply, fired the bullet striking Lawrence in the right side and lodging under the skin on the left side. Physicians performed an operation, but say there is hardly any chance for his recovery. Ramsey was released on his own recognizance.

PRIMARY IN CALLOWAY.

Murray, Ky., Sept. 7.—The Democratic county committee has called a primary election for November 8, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county offices.

MARRIAGE IN FULTON.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 7.—Turner Weatherford and Miss Lillian Sanders, a couple from Clinton, were united in marriage by Squire J. T. Futrell.

DEATH IN GRAVES.

Mayfield, Ky., Sept. 7.—"Uncle" Jake Roberts died Sunday at the home of his son, Mr. Tom Roberts, two miles east of Fulton. Mr. Roberts was in his ninety-fourth year, having passed the age of 93 on the 22d day of last May. He was a prominent Mason, being one of the founders of the Roberts' lodge, No. 172, of Fulton, which was organized at Felleiana, near Water Valley, many years ago, and later removed to this city.

Mr. Roberts was born near Richmond, Va., in 1811, and moved to this county in 1832. Up until a year ago he was as sprightly as a man of 50. He leaves seven children, some of them being past 50. Among them are Esq. Alex. Roberts, Jake and Tom and Mesdames Mace L. McDade of Fulton, wife of the city marshal; Pete Ridgeway, Gid McDade and Jeff Bard.

BARBER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 7.—Charles McDonald, forty years old, a well-known barber, died suddenly in his room from a stroke of paralysis. There was a razor and stone near and he had been sharpening the razor. For five years McDonald lived alone.

ELOPED TO TENNESSEE.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 7.—John P. Prowse, Jr., aged 19, son of the county clerk of Christian county, and Miss Minnie Hadden, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hadden, eloped to Springfield, Tenn., and married. They left for St. Louis on a bridal trip.

ARRESTED A LUNATIC.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 7.—Officer Young Eaker arrested J. C. Heath, an escaped lunatic from a sanitarium at Farmington, Mo. Heath is an old operator and some months ago lost his mind and was confined to a sanitarium at Farmington. A few days ago he escaped and the officers here received a telegram to arrest him.

WILLIS CASE TOMORROW.

Cadiz, Ky., Sept. 7.—The September term of the Trigg circuit court is in session for a three-weeks' term, with Judge Thos. F. Cook presiding. This will be a very busy term. The trial of Lawrence D. Willis, which will be called next Thursday, is the most important one on the docket.

DEATH IN TRIGG.

Cadiz, Ky., Sept. 7.—Clyde Thomas, a prominent young man of this county, died at his home, about five miles southwest of here, of typhoid fever, aged twenty-one years.

DEATH IN GRAVES.

Mrs. White Gough died at her home near West Plains, this county, of consumption. She was about 25 years old and left a husband and three children to mourn her death.

ASK A SALE

JUDGE EVANS WILL NOW NAME THE DAY FOR SELLING THE CHATTANOOGA.

Yesterday a motion was forwarded to Federal Judge Walter Evans, at Louisville, asking for a sale of the steamer Chattanooga to settle claims aggregating $14,000.

The claim of the Marine Ways Company is possibly the largest and an answer to the claim was filed by others holding claims, holding that their claims were prior. There will likely be complications resulting when the declaration of a dividend is made after the sale.

The date of sale is to be fixed by court and 14 days' notice must be given. The local trustee recommended that the terms of sale be made half cash and the other half to be paid within four months.

HIS EYE BURST.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 7.—Jacob Geiss, an aged citizen who was suffering with hay fever, was seized with a sneezing spell when one eye burst completely open. The eye was removed this morning.

France is again in the market for battleships.

TO BE IMPROVED

REPAIRS WILL BE MADE ON THE GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

The deacons in the German Lutheran church on South Fourth street, have decided on extensive improvements to the church in the way of new paper, and repainting.

The interior will be repainted inside and out and the anchor and cross on the steeple will be regilded. This anchor and cross ornament can be seen, when it is clearly gilded, for many miles out in the country, especially in the Eden Hill neighborhood where the farmers are located on high ground, and by special request of the residents who are members of the church the anchor and cross was ordered gilded.
